Wednesday, July 12

Are you already further along with your doctorate and looking for support, guidance and inspiration about how to master the home stretch of your doctorate? In our new info event series “Halfway there – on the home stretch to success”, we will guide you through mandatory elements of the doctorate at TUM, provide you with an overview of our tailor made course options for career planning and orientation, as well as an overview of TUM-GS/TUM services that might be particularly interesting for the second half of your doctorate. Among others, we will be covering the following topics:

- Timeline for thesis submission – what must be fulfilled until thesis submission
- Overview – how to submit my thesis (and what happens afterwards)
- How to publish: process, author's rights, open access & affiliation
- Career planning – TUM-GS Transferable Skills Training
- International mobility – mobility and funding options by the TUM-GS
- Specific information for international doctoral candidates
- Q&A

The info event is scheduled to take place twice per semester - either remotely via Zoom or on site.

Join us for our second event, which will take place online on July 12, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Please register online by July 10 here. A zoom link will be send to registered participants shortly before the event.

The event will be held in English.

We are looking forward to seeing you!
