Munich Postdoc101 Talk Series

The Munich Postdoc101 Series provides researchers at research institutions in Munich with crucial information about a variety of topics that are of particular importance. The talk series takes place on Wednesdays between 4-6 pm. The series is conducted online via Zoom. Please find the program here.

Registration & Deadlines: The series is open to all postdocs in and around Munich and we do not limit the number of participants. For this format, there is no selection process and you do not need to inform us if you are unable to participate.

Please use your institutional email address to register for the workshop.

In general, unless otherwise specified in the description of the talks, the Zoom link will be send to everyone who registered for the respective talk (or all talks) until Tuesday at noon before the respective talk.

The talk series is organized in collaboration with the Munich Postdoc Network and open to all postdoctoral researchers from research institutions in the Munich area (and at other TUM campuses). Interested doctoral researchers at TUM are also welcome to join!

If you are not working at TUM, just choose “Other” in the section “TUM Department” and mention your institution in the respective text field.
